DON'T LIKE WELLMAN NOW.

For some years it has been the custom of the local Republican press to fill its columns with every thing that Walter Wellman would say about the future of the Republican party. He was then a prophet beyond compare and the glowing future that he predicted for the Republican ticket came only too true. For some time it may have been noticed that there has been a dearth of Wellman political articles published in this locality. The News has felt it a duty to ascertain the cause. The reason is not so hard to find when the following article from the pen of this brilliant writer has been perused. It is taken from the Chicago Record-Herald of Dec. 14, and is headed as a special from Walter Wellman:

"There is a great deal of talk among men of both political parties here in Washington to the effect that the next house of representatives is likely to have a Democratic majority and choose John Sharp Williams for speaker. The Republicans of course do not admit that they are going to be defeated next fall, but they do not deny that there are signs of a reaction among the voters which, if it continues, will be likely to land a Democratic majority in the lower branch. This talk was precipitated in part by the warning which Mr. Williams gave the Republicans in his clever talk yesterday, when he faced the Republicans of the house and exclaimed amid a great deal of laughter: 'The people are tired of you on that side of the house and afraid of us on this side!' But there was not a little truth and philosophy in the witticism, and men of both parties recognize it. Although the fortunes of the Democracy appeared to sink to about the lowest possible ebb in the election of last year, it is a remarkable fact that today even Republicans do not deny that change has come in the attitude of the public mind. Even Republicans agree that if the elections for congress had been held last month instead of next November nothing could have saved them from an overwhelming defeat.

"I believe I can see about what is going to happen to the Republicans," said a well known member of that party today. "We will fool along on the rate question, permit the railroads and the senators who are in combination with them to force President Roosevelt into a compromise on the railroad rate bill, do nothing on the tariff, fail to do anything effective with the insurance question, and next fall the people will rise up and shove us out of the house, much as they repudiated the McKinley law in 1890. And then, when it is too late, when the horse is gone, and the Democratic donkey is in his place in the capitol barn, President Roosevelt and all the other Republican leaders will get a move on themselves, and exclaim with one accord: 'For heaven's sake let's revise the tariff before the next presidential campaign!'"

Akron will make an effort to get after the East Ohio Gas Co. and have an investigation of the gas meter situation. There is no danger of the company being disturbed in this city, however. There appears to be some unknown power here that protects that corporation from any efforts that may affect its income. The ways of the Standard are mysterious but none the less potent until the people get onto the individuals who do the secret work.

The abundance of interurban lines throughout the country is becoming so noticeable one wonders when the steam roads will come down to a two-cent rate.

Helping Him Out.

My parents, who have just come to live with us, are spoiling my two-year-old baby. I don't want to offend them, and yet I am at a loss how to act. What would you suggest?
Go to some reliable founding hospital and hire another baby. It is this special prerogative of every grandma and grandpa to spoil at least one baby, and almost any kind of a baby, except your own, will answer the purpose. It may cost you something, but it will pay in the end.—Life.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The certain, rational cure for Catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 25 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 24 Warren Street, New York.
